BOARD COMMENT

Trustee Thompson joined meeting at 6:10 p.m.

Supervisor Spillane opened Public Hearing at 6:10 p.m. on the Sunset Drive paving special assessment. The Supervisor read a letter addressed to Board from David Taylor, 8081 Sunset Dr. Letter is attached.

Public Comment:

Julie Rose 8044 Sunset: Wondering who is paying, who is doing inspection and who will maintain road and what type of road will it be dirt?

Mr. Taylor 8081 Sunset: Road will not be dirt.

Supervisor explained type of road and where it has been used before. If there is a question of garbage trucks being to heavy cans can be taken out to Morrish Road.

Julie Rose has question on drainage.

Vinnie Mossman, GCRC: Says he will shoot road again and make sure drainage is correct.

Mr. Taylor has question on cattails in ditches and Mr. Mossman says it is resident's responsibility to get rid of and that spraying is not an option.

Joshua Rose has another question on drainage.

Julie Rose has question on farm equipment using road and is there another egress to property that farm equipment can use.

Mr. Taylor has question on mud being left by farm equipment.

Attorney Tucker says farmland is owned by Kevin Mignault, 8097 Sunset.

Mr. Taylor has questions on completion of road and timeline.

Mr. Mossman gives explanation on how long chip and seal will take.

Rick Caruso wants to know will residents be able to use road through the process.

Mr. Mossman says yes, they will be able to use, and he will get tentative date as to when paving will start.

Question of Mr. Caruso on when assessment will start, says it is up to assessor.

Mr. Taylor has questions on texture of the road. Mr. Mossman said it is smooth.

Supervisor ends public hearing at 6:31

Motion by Childers and seconded by Kapraun to grant creation of special assessment district for Sunset Drive paving. Role Call: Yes: Kapraun, Childers, Crockett, Caruso, Thompson, Spillane and Milem. Motion carried.
